Microchipping

It is not unusual for cats to go missing, but chances of being reunited are much higher if they are microchipped.

Microchipping is a SAFE and PERMANENT form of identification. International Cat Care recommends that ALL owned cats should be microchipped. Remember to update your contact details if they change.

Tiggy
black, long-haired female neutered and microchipped

last seen on Thursday 31 March 2016
in Tisbury, Wiltshire, SP3 6LD

Microchipping is a SAFE and PERMANENT form of identification. International Cat Care recommends that ALL owned cats should be microchipped. Remember to update your contact details if they change.